- Specialised Training Besides undergoing around 30 - 35 training programmes Conducted at Bank's Training Centres, Staff Colleges at Hyderabad, Gurgaon, Chandigarh, Panaji, Mumbai, Pune, Aurangabad etc., I had the honour of being selected for Bank Management Programme of 72 weeks comprising of residential training of 36 weeks at National Institute of Bank Management, Pune, a prestigious training Institute in Asia. The Programme covered entire gamut of banking with training in 23 diverse subjects ranging from Yoga to Computers. This was followed by submission of a dissertation on "The Stationery Management - A Systems Approach, A Case Study of Bombay Circle of SBI." The thesis was completed in a record time of 49 weeks which analyses the relevant statistical data of 789 branches, questionnaire responded by 102 branches in 12 districts and records the observations made during the personal interview with 16 Branch Managers, specially identified on the basis of their extreme performance. The thesis has been concluded with 21 recommendations and a conceptual model on computer to replace the then indenting system, resulting in saving of substantial man days at branch level and reduction in cost of stationery to the order of 12% to 15% per annum on the whole bank level. The thesis runs into 200 pages with 51 Tables and 4 Graphs.
